Let's work together!

I'm Chrystal, the founder of ChryssVI. I started my journey back in 2012 as a YouTuber reviewing TV shows. In 2015, I evolved into a full-time blogger and have since been able to work with amazing brands on exciting social media campaigns! I'm ready to help you reach your target audience and share your brand with the world. What are you waiting for? Send me a message! I look forward to working with you.
